Notice of Website Renewal

Life Science Institute, Inc.

Thank you always for visiting the corporate website of Life Science Institute, Inc. (LSII). Today we are pleased to inform you that our website has been redesigned with more contents about “Muse cells” that LSII is researching and developing.

The main renewal points are as follows;

1. New contents

New contents about “Muse Cells and Regenerative Medicine” have been added. With visual information like videos and photos website visitors can learn more about what “Muse Cells” are.

2. Easy-to-use Navigation

We added the navigation menu making it easier for website visitors to find the information they want, improving visibility and convenience.

3. Mobile-friendly

We have adopted a responsive design. You can now comfortably use our website from your smartphones or tablets.

We will continue to make improvements to better provide information for all website visitors. Please come to visit our renewed website!

LSII is committed to contribute to people’s health and well-being around the world by developing the next-generation technologies, including Muse cell-based product and to creation of a society where everyone can live a healthy and peaceful life, KAITEKI.
